“I would like to improve the lives of my children. I would like them to go to secondary school and higher education.”

What is Traidcraft?

Traidcraft is the UK's leading fair trade organisation. Established in 1979, it incorporates both a trading company and a charity. We buy products from people in the developing world, helping them build better lives through trade.

As a Traidcraft Caterer you would be:

- United with us in spreading this shared vision.
- Demonstrating your organisation's commitment to our values.
- Raising the profile of fair trade and Traidcraft.

What kind of products do we sell?

We offer our customers a vibrant and diverse range of products from across the world.

We pay our producers a fair price for their work. This enables us to bring you quality, exclusive products at very reasonable prices.

A Traidcraft Caterer...

- Receives an invoice for accounting purposes.
- Is given a credit limit of £200.
- Receives FREE carriage on all orders over £50 (or pays £4.95 p&p).
- Can access an easy ordering system via the web, telephone or post once their account is set up.

Let's get started!

Please complete both sides of the attached application form and return it with your first order. Don't forget to include a utility bill, bank statement or invoice in the name of your organisation, for proof of identity. Return them to us in the free post envelope provided,

Traidcraft plc
FREEPOST, Kingsway,
Gateshead, Tyne & Wear NE11 9BR, or call us on 0870 444 1543.

Once we have processed your application and first order, you will receive a registration letter with your own customer number for placing future orders by whichever method you choose.
